Dr. Marvin R. White

Pearl River College
President
1967-1986

This Wildcat, Dr. White, is for you

After 18 years as chief of Mississippi's pioneer junior college, Pearl River College President Marvin R. White will retire on June 30, leaving behind a legacy of achievement in Mississippi's advanced education.

On behalf of the faculty, staff, administration, and students, the 1985-86 Wildcat yearbook staff dedicates this year's annual yearbook to Dr. White.

Dr. White, a native of Poplarville, has served in this capacity since 1968. During his tenure at Pearl River, the school has doubled its enrollment, doubled its plant facilities, and continues to be the pathfinder of higher education in the state.

President White is married to Marjorie Lee Daniels White, and is the father of two children, Mrs. Perry Winegarden and Dr. Calvin White.

Dr. White's achievements sport an array of degrees and awards in the books of educational excellence. After graduating from Poplarville High school, he attended Pearl River College and received an Associate of Arts degree; obtained his B.S. from Millsaps College; holds a masters from the University of Southern Mississippi and received his doctorate from the University of Southern Mississippi.

White served his country in the U.S. Army during World War II and the Korean Conflict.

White began his career in education as a math instructor and a coach at Ocean Springs in 1948-49 and moved those same services to Poplarville High in 1949.

White then became principal of Pearl River Agricultural High School in 1952 before becoming registrar of Pearl River College in 1960. White was promoted to dean of Pearl River College in 1964 and became PRC's eighth president in the fall of 1968.

President White's participation in both state and local organizations has made him a renown personality in Mississippi.

He is a member of the State Selective Service Committee; the State Commission on School Accreditation; the State Job Service Employee Committee; Mississippi Economic Council; the Poplarville Rotary Club; North Pearl River County Chamber of Commerce; and attends the Poplarville United Methodist Church.

White serves as President of the Mississippi Junior-Senior College Association and is a college representative of the Gulf Coast Regional Interstate Collegiate Consortium. He was chosen as Citizen of the Year of 1985 by the North Pearl River County Chamber of Commerce.

PRC Names Sam Favre Alumnus of the Year

Sam L. Favre Jr., a Bay St. Louis attorney and 1941 graduate of Pearl River College, was named the College's Alumnus of the Year here Saturday during PRC's 1985 Alumni Banquet.

Favre, a 1938 graduate of Kiln High School, has been very active in both civic and community affairs in Hancock County and has been an outstanding supporter of Pearl River College.

Larry Ladner, president of the Pearl River College Alumni Association and presentor of the Alumnus of the Year Award, said Favre had "distinguished himself academically in school, professionally in life and had epitomized the ideas of a Christian."

Ladner said Favre, as a leader in his profession, has recorded many honors socially and professionally and has been a tremendous supporter of Pearl River College since his graduation.

"He has brought many honors to his family, his profession and Pearl River College," Ladner said.

Favre graduated from Mississippi State University in 1943 and served as Hancock County's youngest Superintendent of Education from 1943-47. He graduated from the University of Mississippi Law School in 1950 and then joined Judge Dan Russell Jr., in his law firm in 1951.

He has been a practicing attorney in Bay St. Louis for 35 years with his specialty being "Estate Planning."

Favre has served as attorney for the City of Bay St. Louis, Bay St. Louis School Board, Hancock County Board of Supervisors, Hancock General Hospital, Marine Conservation Commission, the L&N Railroad and still represents the Hancock County Bank and People's Federal.

Due to health reasons, Favre is not as active in civic affairs as he used to be, however, he still holds membership in the Rotary Club and the St. Joseph Carnival Association, where he served as chairman and is a past king.

He is a member and past president of the Hancock County Bar Association. In 1977, Mr. Favre was selected "King Neptune" of the Deep Sea Fishing Rodeo and he is still an active member of this organization. He also holds membership in the Bay St. Louis chapter of the Knights of Columbus.

For the past several years, Favre and many other classmates have been participating in Pearl River's Homecoming activities by holding a class reunion.

Hancock, VICA Win Parade Competition

For the second consecutive year, Hancock Bank of Poplarville and the PRC VICA Club won their respective division of the Pearl River College Homecoming parade competition.

Placing second behind Hancock Bank in the commercial division was Movie Star Inc. The Shady Oaks Gang received third place.

The PRC chapter of the vocational Industrial Clubs of America (VICA) edged out the Respiratory Therapy class from the PRC Forrest County Center in Hattiesburg. The Phi Theta Kappa organization placed third in the competition.

"This was one of the largest parades we have ever had," said Dr. James Sones, parade chairman and PRC's dean of vocational-technical education. "We had super participation from the campus organizations and from local merchants and businesses. We really appreciate their support."

Thousands turned out downtown as the parade wound its way through the streets of Poplarville. The parade featured state, local, and county dignitaries, as well as several district bands, and queen Jennifer Hammill and her 1985 PRC Homecoming Court.

Miss Amy Smith and her Poplarville High School Homecoming court and the Blueberry Festival Queen and court were also in the parade.

"I also want to thank Don Bradley Ford for providing us with the many new cars to use during the parade," Dr. Sones said. "Thanks also goes out to the Poplarville City Police and the many PRC faculty and staff members who help make our annual Homecoming Parade a success.

"Gala" took town to college

"This was good for our students and faculty," said Dr. Marvin R. White, Pearl River College president. "It was a good way of demonstrating the meaning of the River Magic here at the Poplarville campus."

"We hope to make this an annual event," said Betty Applewhite of Apple's LTD. "It was so nice to have the cooperation from the business community and the participation from the PRC students."

The North Pearl River County Chamber of Commerce and its Poplarville Merchants Association took the town to college.

In an effort to welcome Pearl River College students to the Poplarville business community, the local organizations staged the first annual "Spectacular City Gala" at Marion Hall on the PRC campus.

The event included a fashion show by area merchants, free hors d'oeuvres and an old-time downtown street dance.

A 32-yard scoring strike from Terrie Rhodes to Debra Powell with only four plays remaining in the second half of the "Bloomer Bowl" lifted the Sophomores to a 9-0 victory over a stubborn Freshman team. The controversy occurred on the first play of the game when the Freshmen attempted to run a center sneak. The play picked up 20 yards and gave the Freshmen an apparent first down on the Sophomores' 30-yard line. The play, however, was protested by the Sophomores and after a long debate by the officials and Bloomer Bowl director Harvey Seligman, the play was ruled illegal.

Neither team could muster any offense for the remainder of the first half. In the second half the Freshmen marched to the 12-yard line of the Sophomores, but the Sophomores played tuff and prevented the first down.

The Sophomores took over possession of the ball with only six plays remaining in the contest. In two plays they moved the ball to the 32 of the Freshmen, and on the next play connected with Powell for the touchdown. The extra point was good as D.D. Ryals swept around the left end making the score 7-0.

The Freshmen took over the ball with only three plays remaining and were forced to throw. On the next play the ball was snapped over the quarterback's head, rolling into the end zone, resulting in a safety for the Sophomores. The score was now 9-0 with one play remaining.

On the final play of the game the Sophomores fell on the ball to walk away with the victory.

DELTA PSI OMEGA

Young Sherwood tries to explain the events leading up to the murder and tries to focus in on the murderers identity.

Laverne, Amanda and Hillary awaiting the final outcome of Sherwood's investigation.

Presents . . .

The Pearl River chapter of Delta Psi Omega presented their annual play April 16 & 17 in Moody Hall Auditorium. The play was entitled "The Very Great Grandson of Sherlock Holmes", a comedy written by Bill Majeski about one of the many cases in the career of Sherlock Holmes' grandson Sherwood. It is the ultimate Sherlock Holmes spoof, done in the terms of a contemporary comedy. Unfortunately, great grandson Sherwood is not quite up to his illustrious ancestor Sherlock. The pace of the comedy is fast and the satire is a comic delight.

The wonderful job of directing was done by Connie Holmes with great help from student directors Donald Balch and Lori Dale.

Trying to get to the bottom of the things, Sherwood Holmes (Paul Miller) questions Amanda Wheeler (Shani Bourn) about her actions at the time of the murder.

1986 SPRING

Pearl River College's '86 spring enrollment was up 54 students since this time last year, according to Dr. Willis Lott, PRC's director of admissions.

By the end of late registration, PRC closed out with 1425 students. Last spring the total was 1371.

According to the admissions office, very few schedules needed changing because of errors. The computers broke down during the registration process due to the overload of new students registering.

Dr. Lott said he was pleased with the entire registration process and commends the faculty and students for their assistance.

REGISTRATION

Dr. Lott said that Dean Enoch Seal and about 10 faculty advisors were on hand to assist students who were scheduled for a class which had been closed due to the overload. This spared students the inconvenience of returning to the beginning of the line.

"I would like to thank the faculty and students for assisting in the successful registration," Dr. Lott said.

1986 PRC'S

All students, faculty, and staff were invited to donate at the Pearl River Junior College bloodmobile visit Wednesday, January 29. Mississippi Blood Services (MBS) coordinated the blooddrive in the lobby of Marion Hall from 9 a.m. until 2 p.m. According to MBS Recruitment Representative Jim Landrum, people who need blood are people like yourself — friends, relatives, co-workers, patients in local hospitals.

"Most Americans, at least 95 percent of those who reach age 72, will need blood during their lifetime. Blood will be there when it's needed because responsible people like you have donated regularly to help save lives," he said.

A record of 108 interested students from PRC turned out to give blood Wednesday, January 29.

Only 13 students were deferred from donating blood because of medical reasons.

Out of a goal of 100 pints of blood, 95 were given.

As reassurance to those who may consider Jim Landrum recruitment representative for MBS said, "You can't get anything (colds, hepatitis, AIDS, or anything else) from donating, cause the materials used are sterile, but what you do get can be a deep sense of satisfaction knowing you may have saved someone's life."

This year PRC and PERK had an unofficial competition donating blood. PRC donated 95 pints while PERK only donated 64.

Remember, if you're here next year, donating blood would be one of your best bets!!
